How much do you really trust God?

This Sunday's Gospel reading comes from the part of the Sermon on the Mount where Jesus gives advice on how to live in the holiness that he has been teaching and modeling. Interestingly, it follows the same guidelines that Jesus set forth in the "Our Father" prayer, starting with "give us this day our daily bread". Both the prayer and the sermon focus our attention on trusting God for our daily needs.

In every temptation, in every challenge, and in every difficulty, either we choose to trust God or else we trust our limited understanding of the situation and choose the ways of the world. We cannot do both at the same time, although we might fool ourselves into believing that we can keep one foot in heaven while the other foot walks the paths of the world. (Try picturing that!)

The word "mammon" comes from the Aramaic word for "wealth" or "property." It's been said that someone once prayed, "Give us this day our daily bread" and God replied, "You already have your bread and other people's bread, too." What do we have in storage that someone else needs? We store up for the future while others barely survive as they lack what we have in abundance. It feels dangerous to give away what we've stored up; someday we might need it more than they do! (This is why most Catholics feel so uncomfortable when asked to give generously to the parish and to other charities.)

If that's our thinking, we're not trusting God to take care of us. We are living under the assumption that he won't be as generous with us as we are with others.

That's why Jesus went on to say, "You worry too much!" We should focus not on what worries us but on how good God is.

Jesus said, "God loves you so much, he will take care of you! If you seek first God's kingdom and handle daily life God's way, you'll have everything you need."

Worry is a sin when it takes our eyes off of Jesus. Worry is evil when it restrains us from giving to others what Jesus wants to give them through us.

...Announcements...

Please stop by The Ladies Sodality Bazaar this weekend before or after Mass. Saturday 8:00-6:00 and Sunday 8:00-1:00.

The Women's Study Group of Corpus Christi will begin a new Bible Study session starting March 3, 2017. We meet on Fridays from 9-11 am in the Parish Hall. The purpose of this study group is to encourage women to grow spiritually through an understanding of God's word, while giving support to one another through love, sharing and prayer. Those interested please contact Carol Phillips at 202-255-7052 or Colleen Ward in the office at 850-654-5422.

On March 4&5 there will be a collection for the Black and Indian Mission. Your support provides opportunities for a solid Catholic education in our Indian and Black Catholic mission schools, and allows the purchase of catechetical materials & bibles.

Corpus Christi Parish is in need of a Director of Religious Education. The DRE position is part-time and requires flexible work hours to include weekends, some weekdays, and some evenings. Salary available upon request. Please call the office: 850 654-5422 or forward your resume to Colleen Ward at corpusdomini@outlook.com

Please pray for Father Angelo Messina. He is recovering from surgery and doing well.

The Legion of Mary is an association of Catholics who strive for personal spiritual growth through prayer, study of the faith, and spiritual works of mercy. Members meet once a week for prayer, discussion, planning, and perform spiritual works of service each week (teaching CCD, visiting nursing homes, hospitals, shut-ins, or other areas where Fr. Huynh has a need). All men and women are invited to attend. Meetings will be every Thursday at 10:30am in the Religious Ed Building. For more info call Rose at 244-8488
