Acts 6:1-7

Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19 (with 22)

1 Peter 2:4-9

John 14:1-12

This Sunday's Gospel reading ends with a very astounding verse: "Whoever believes in me will do the works I do, and greater far than these." What does he mean? How can we do the same ~ and greater ~ miracles than Jesus himself did?

The answer is found in the context of the entire chapter. Jesus is explaining his close relationship with the Father. Remember, Jesus was (and still is) both human and divine. We need to look at these verses with that in mind. How did he serve the Father as the Son of Man? And how did he serve the Father as the Son of God?

The "works I do" come from his human nature: He loved, he taught, he conversed with a listening heart, he dined with others, he worked hard at his job, he took his ministry very seriously. "Whoever believes in me will do the works I do" ~ he is our example of what it means to be a holy human. We will love others as he loves them, teach the faith to others, listen to those who need someone to understand them, work hard at our jobs, offer a helping hand when we see a need, etc. There's nothing supernatural about it.

It's being who we are: human children of a loving Father.

The "greater" works come from his divine nature: He did the supernatural works of his Father. "Whoever believes in me will do the works of the Father." We are called to be the Father's conduits of miracles in our world today.

When Jesus united himself to us as a human, he showed us how to rise above our human limitations. Now, through the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation, we are united to Christ's divine nature so that we can continue the works of the Father. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, any disunity is removed. We can love the unlovable after they've pushed us past our human limits. We can be conduits of the supernatural. We can do everything that God asks of us, despite our inadequacies.

Happy Mother's Day

"She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue." PROVERBS 31:25-26

Parish Religious Education Program Registration

Faith Formation for children in grades Pre-K through high school. Registration will be held inside the Religious Ed Building on Sunday, May 14 & 21 from 8:30am-9:30am. Classes support parents in assisting their children as they grow in love and knowledge of God through faith retreats, bible studies & Youth Group nights. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Marion Movement of Priests Lay Cenacle Rosary will follow the 8:00am Mass every Thursday. Please join us!!

Saida & George Rashmawi, volunteer members from the Roman Catholic Church in Bethlehem will be visiting our parish today. They will have some beautiful olive wood carving which are all handmade by the Christian people. This is a Church mission to maintain the existence of Catholics in the Holy Land.

Are you planning a special event?

Consider Corpus Christi Social Hall with a capacity of up to 216 people or as little as 45 in the small hall. There is a full commercial kitchen, serving area and ample off street parking. Check out our website: ccdestin.com and go to Fellowship Hall for all pictures.
